Wills Feather Bed.

Fremont, Ohio, Oct. 29.—The shortest will ever filed for probate in Sandusky county was that of Sarah Jane Husted, late of York Township, made August 14, 1916, which says: "I want Will to have a feather bed. I want Lizzie to have her equal share for herself and children."

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking laxatives, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists—Adv.

RELIES UPON WILSON FOR GOOD BUSINESS

Col. Harper Says President's Re-election Will Insure Prosperity.

The re-election of President Wilson will insure prosperity, in the opinion of Col. Robert N. Harper, president of the District National Bank, 1406 G street northwest, and one of the leading members of the Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations.

"I believe the present prosperity of the country is by no means due entirely to the European war," said Col. Harper last night. "Of course, the war is a factor and a very important one, but a factor fully as important is the influence of the policies pursued by the Wilson administration."

"The administration has established an almost world-wide feeling of confidence and security, and that is half the battle. At home the people know that Wilson is more interested in the security of the home and the prosperity of the land than in meddling in foreign affairs. And abroad all nations have learned that the United States firmly intends not to become enmeshed in world strife."

"To change the administration would mean to destroy confidence, temporarily at least. The balance established by Wilson would be destroyed. This situation necessarily would follow, for we have no definite outline of what Hughes would do. The friction that would arise would be disastrous."

"The business world knows what Wilson will do. He will do the same as he has done during the last four years. Then why give up the promise of four more years of plenty for four years of uncertainty?"

"Wilson's financial policies have been master strokes. The Federal Reserve Bank system has benefited all sections. The rural credit act has made it possible for the farmer to borrow reasonably large sums on the security of his farm, just the same as the merchant now borrows on the security of his business property."

"I believe the election will be a landslide for Wilson. Business men are not going to give up a certainty for a mere experiment."

TWO RIDE GIANT CATFISH.

Father and Son Finally Succeed in Landing Catch.

Wichita, Kan., Oct. 29.—C. A. Whitney, of Route No. 9, on the West Side, and his 16-year-old son rode around on the back of a forty-two-pound catfish for half an hour in the Chickasaw River near Drury the other day. They finally landed the fish and brought it to Wichita.

Whitney and his son have been camping for the last month. Neighbors told them of several times seeing a monster fish in the river. Whitney, wading into the river, felt around until he located the fish. He got one hand in the catfish's gills and jumped on its back. The fish darted forward and whipped around in the water until it was about to throw its rider off. Whitney's son rushed to his father's aid and climbed on top of the latter's back to weight down the catfish. For half an hour they rode the fish around, struggling to get it to the bank. They finally succeeded.

VETERAN GETS SCARED BEAR.

Tionesta, Pa., Oct. 29.—To kill a big black bear weighing 200 pounds while out hunting for pheasants was the luck of George Huddleston, an old soldier of this place.

Huddleston was walking along the State road, only a half mile from Tionesta, when he heard a roar behind him, and turning spied big Bruin coming toward him. About the same time the bear discovered Huddleston and started off into the forest, much to the hunter's surprise, but a quick shot dropped Bruin in his tracks and a second killed him.
